Pauline Walde focuses her practice on international dispute resolution, with a special emphasis on international arbitration. She has experience with disputes conducted under the ICSID Convention, DIS and UNCITRAL Rules.

Pauline obtained her Master's Degree in International and European business law from the Université Paris Dauphine, concentrating her studies on international arbitration and competition law. Pauline also holds a double-degree in French and Italian law from the Université Paris 1 – Panthéon Sorbonne and the Università degli Studi di Firenze, where she focused her studies on private international, business and insolvency law.

As a legal trainee Pauline worked for international law firms in Italy and Strasburg, where she gained practical experience in the field of international arbitration and litigation.
