

Dirk Pulkowski is a Senior Legal Counsel at the Permanent Court of Arbitration (PCA) in The Hague, the Netherlands, an independent intergovernmental organization established in 1899 with 121 Contracting Parties. The PCA currently provides administrative support in over 160 pending arbitration and conciliation proceedings.

Dr. Pulkowski has acted as institutional secretary in many investor-State arbitrations administered by the PCA in recent years. He also has broad experience as registrar in arbitrations between States under public international law. In addition to his work with tribunals in PCA-administered arbitrations, Dr. Pulkowski supports the PCA Secretary-General in handling the appointment of, and challenges to, arbitrators.

Dr. Pulkowski has represented the PCA at various intergovernmental fora, including the Sixth Committee of the United Nations General Assembly, the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL), the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), the conference of the States parties to the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS), and the Energy Charter.

From March 2014 to April 2015, Dr. Pulkowski acted as representative of the PCA in Mauritius, where he led the PCA's Africa work.

Dr. Pulkowski teaches international investment law as a lecturer in the LL.M. programme of the Université libre de Bruxelles (ULB).

Prior to joining the PCA in 2009, Dr. Pulkowski practiced as a lawyer in the international trade and arbitration group of an international law firm.

Dr. Pulkowski holds a doctorate in law, summa cum laude, from Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität, Munich, Germany, and an LL.M. degree from Yale Law School, New Haven, United States. He has published in the fields of public international law, investment law, trade law, and legal theory.
