Arne Fuchs is a partner in the law firm of McDermott Will & Emery Rechtsanwälte Steuerberater LLP and is based in the firm's Frankfurt office.

Arne focuses his practice on international dispute resolution, with an emphasis on international commercial arbitration and public international law, including investment treaty arbitration. He has experience with disputes conducted under the ICSID Convention, ICC, LCIA, HKIAC, Swiss, DIS and UNCITRAL Rules as well as pure ad-hoc arbitration. Arne also regularly acts as secretary of the tribunal in international arbitrations (commercial and treaty).

Arne was recognized as a dispute resolution specialist by GAR's Who's Who Legal: Arbitration – Future Leaders in the inaugural 2017 edition as well as in the 2018 edition and was selected to appear in the 2017 edition of Euromoney's Expert Guide Commercial Arbitration. He regularly speaks on international arbitration topics and teaches training courses and workshops on dispute resolution.

In 2017, Arne was appointed by the ICC International Court of Arbitration as Regional Representative for the Europe and Russia Chapter of the ICC YAF (with a 2017-2019 mandate).

Arne studied law at the University of Augsburg and obtained an LL.M. from the George Washington University Law School in Washington, D.C. where he focused his studies on international arbitration and public international law. He also successfully completed an advanced training program in German and International Arbitration at the University of Frankfurt.

Prior to joining the firm, Arne worked inter alia at the German Federal Ministry of Economics and Technology's division representing the Federal Republic of Germany before the European Courts and in the international arbitration practice group of another leading global law firm in Frankfurt am Main.

Arne is admitted to the German Bar. He is fluent in German, English and French and reads Spanish.
